WEB COPY NOT OFFICIAL

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT PATNA

Test Case No.2 of 2004

==========

In The Goods Of Smt.(Dr.) Iva Rani Hazari

.... Petitioner/s

Versus

.... Respondent/s

==========

CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAMESH KUMAR DATTA

ORAL ORDER

16 11-04-2013 A show cause is filed on behalf of the applicant who was granted Letters of Administration by judgment and order dated 5.1.2007. The stand taken in the show cause is that due to lack of knowledge and improper information, the legal obligation of filing inventory and account could not be complied.

Learned counsel for the applicant further submits that the applicant was suffering from critical health problem and for the said reason also he could not come to this Court and, as a matter of fact, not received the notices which had been sent as he had gone out of Kolkata for his treatment. Learned counsel submits that unqualified apology of the applicant as also the inventory and account filed by the applicant along with the show cause may be accepted.On a consideration of the facts and circumstances mentioned in the show cause, the same is accepted.

It is reported by the office that inventory and accounts filed by the applicant have been checked and verified with the Will and found to be in order. The same are accepted and directed to be kept on the record.

S.Pandey/-

(Ramesh Kumar Datta, J)